With the Oregon estate tax exemption remaining at $1,000,000, more estates are becoming subject to Oregon tax. Estate planners need to know how to advise their clients. This comprehensive program covers the basics of planning for Oregon taxable estates. Examine the elements of estate planning and aspects such as credit shelter trusts and marital deductions. Take a look at disclaimer planning, portability and estate tax apportionment. Learn about Oregon taxation of nonresidents and non-Oregon assets and using gifting as an estate planning tool. Find out how to name a trust as a beneficiary of a retirement plan. Also included in the program is an hour of ethics for estate planning attorneys. Aimed at recent admittees and new lawyers, these topics build a foundation of knowledge regarding estate tax planning in Oregon. This program is also suitable for more experienced lawyers who plan nontaxable estates and would like to make the leap into taxable estates, or those who need a refresher on Oregon taxable estate planning.
